Applicants who have a disability/special need which may require extra support or specific facilities to aid their study are advised to contact the University's Disability Support Office (Tel: +44 (0) 161 275 7512 or email: disability@manchester.ac.uk) prior to formal application.

CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS

To help the University reduce the risk of harm or injury to its students caused by the criminal behaviour of other students and to identify candidates who may be unsuitable for certain programmes (ie which involve contact with children or other vulnerable members of society) we must know about any relevant criminal convictions that you may have.

For programmes in teaching, health, social work and programmes involving work with children or vulnerable adults

You must tell us about all criminal convictions, including spent sentences and cautions and bind-over orders. For these programmes, you must enter X in the box if any of the following statements apply to you:

- I have a criminal conviction
- I have a spent criminal conviction
- I have a caution (including a verbal caution)
- I have a bind-over order
- I am serving a prison sentence for a criminal conviction

For these programmes, you may also need an enhanced disclosure document from the Criminal Records Bureau (www.crb.gov.uk). The admitting School will send you the appropriate documents to complete if this applies to you.

For all other programmes

The University only needs to know about convictions for offences against the person, whether of a violent or sexual nature, and convictions for offences involving unlawfully supplying controlled drugs or substances where the conviction concerns commercial drug dealing or trafficking. Convictions that are spent (as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974) are not considered to be relevant and you should not reveal them on the application form. You must enter X in the box if either of the following statements applies to you:

- I have a relevant criminal conviction that is not spent
- I am serving a prison sentence for a relevant criminal conviction

If statement 'e' or 'b' in either of the above categories applies to you then you must also give the prison address as your correspondence address and a senior prison officer must support your application.

Applicants who enter X in the box will not be automatically excluded from the application process. However the University may request further information about the conviction before making a decision.

If you have been convicted of a relevant criminal offence after you have applied you must tell the admitting School as soon as possible. Do not send details of the offence; simply tell us that you have a relevant criminal conviction. The University may then ask for more details.

PROPOSED PROGRAMME OF STUDY

Please read the current Postgraduate Prospectus carefully before completing this section. You may also wish to refer to School websites for more details about the programme of study and to see if there is any additional information required in order to process your application. If you wish to apply for more than one programme on the same application form, please list your choices in order of preference, with your first choice at the top.

Overseas applicants from non-EU countries should note that the terms of entry into the UK will normally prevent you from registering for a programme on a part-time basis (for more information, please refer to www.ukvisas.gov.uk/ or www.ukcosa.org.uk/)

Taught programmes - You need to provide us with the level of qualification (eg MA, MSc) and the full title of the proposed programme as stated in the Postgraduate Prospectus.

Research programmes - Please specify the research group/theme you are interested in or the broad subject area of the proposed research topic. Please use the current Postgraduate Prospectus and/or Faculty or School website to identify the appropriate research group/area. If you are not sure which research group/area is relevant, you should contact the Faculty or School for advice. You are also asked to give the proposed title of your research and details of your research proposal. The amount of information required in a research proposal varies from subject to subject so you must refer to the Postgraduate Prospectus and/or School websites for information. In general, however, the following applies:

Faculty of Humanities - applicants are required to include a more detailed proposal on a separate sheet of paper (not more than 1,000 words) covering the following: title; how the proposed research relates to previous research in this field; main questions or hypotheses to be addressed; justification of these as worthy of investigation; overview of the proposed research methodology; sources and type of data and methods of collection; methods of analysis; main stages in the conduct of the proposed research with time allocation.

All other Faculties - applicants are required to provide a 20-30 word (minimum) outline of their research.

For all research programmes, it is very important that you include the name of your proposed research group. If you have already discussed your proposal with a potential supervisor you should state his or her name on the application form. If applying for a part-time research degree we require confirmation of free-time from your employer. You are also required to attach an initial study plan to your application. Please refer to the Postgraduate Prospectus and/or School websites for further information.

Special Study Options - In exceptional circumstances, it is possible to study on an external basis, or at another institution as well as The University of Manchester (ie split-site). To guarantee an appropriate environment and supervision for the research to take place, such arrangements are usually made on an institutional level, rather than with individual students. This should be discussed with your proposed School before an application form is submitted.

Further Information - This section gives you the opportunity to include any other information about yourself or your plans that you have not been able to write elsewhere and that you feel may be relevant to your application. If you find there is not enough space you can include additional pages. Some Schools (eg Informatics) like to see a resume/curriculum vitae (CV) included with the application. These are indicated in the Postgraduate Prospectus.

CURRENT AND PREVIOUS STUDY

In this section, you should give details of present and previous higher educational institutions attended (ie education since the age of 18). Please enclose copies of your degree certificates and academic transcripts received to date with your application. If these are in a language other than English please provide official translations. You will be requested to provide original copies of documentation on arrival at the University.

Please make sure that the names of educational institutions are written in full and not abbreviated to initials. Please also give the country in which the institution is located. Please indicate the type of award for which you studied eg BA, BSc, or MA and the title used on the degree certificate/transcript. Give the grades you attained; eg Degree Class, Grade Point Average (GPA), score out of 100. If you have not yet received your award, please indicate when you expect to receive the results and provide a transcript to date.

Academic Honours, Distinctions and Prizes: Please list any of these you have received.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY AND OTHER QUALIFICATIONS

All applicants are required to provide evidence of their ability in English since a good command of the language is essential to study for a postgraduate degree. It is the admitting School or Faculty that will determine, as part of the decision on admission, whether an applicant's competence in the English language is sufficient for the programme to which he/she has applied. The minimum English Language requirements for admission to individual programmes are stated in the Postgraduate Prospectus. These normally take the form of a recognised English language qualification such as GCSE English Language, International English Language Testing System (IELTS), or Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), although there are a number of other acceptable qualifications. Applicants who have already successfully completed, or are successfully completing, a full-time university degree (ie Bachelor's or Master's) in the UK of a minimum of one year's duration would normally be exempt from these requirements. Applicants who have taken a degree outside the UK but delivered in the English language may also be considered for an exemption from the requirements but this will be at the discretion of the admitting School or Faculty. Applicants with less than the minimum requirements may be automatically rejected or will be asked to retake the relevant examinations. Alternatively, they may need to successfully complete one of the English language courses at the University's Language Centre preceding entry to their programme of study. Applicants will be notified at the point of offer of any such conditions.

Professional or other non-academic qualifications - Please list any of these you have obtained. Please note that the Graduate Management Admissions Test (GMAT) or Manchester Admission Test (MAT) is a mandatory requirement for non-UK degree holders applying to certain business, management and finance programmes (as indicated in the current Postgraduate Prospectus).

PROFESSIONAL/PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

Please give details of any relevant professional/ previous experience related to your proposed field of study. Do not simply attach a resume/curriculum vitae (CV) unless specifically instructed to do so. Please note that work experience is a requirement for some programmes. Use a separate sheet if you require more space. This section will be particularly relevant to students who want to be considered under the University's accreditation for prior experiential learning (APEL) policy, ie the process of awarding academic credits for uncertificated learning gained from experience. More information is available on APEL from the School in which you wish to study.

REFERENCES

It is your responsibility to provide references from two people (referees) who have knowledge of your academic or professional ability in support of your application. Members of your family cannot provide references. In most cases, it would be appropriate for both references to be academic references (eg from a lecturer or professor from your last university). However if, for example, your academic studies occurred some time ago it might be more appropriate to submit recommendations from those familiar with your professional performance. If you have difficulty in identifying suitable referees you should seek the advice of the relevant admissions tutor.

References must be submitted on official headed paper and must be signed.

A completed copy of the University's 'Referee Report Form', which ensures that certain information is provided by the referee, must also accompany each letter of reference. You are advised to return references with your application to speed up the application process but they can be sent at a later date if necessary.

FUNDING

It is important that you have sufficient funds to pay for your tuition fees and living expenses during your period of study. Some laboratory-based programmes may also require a bench fee to cover additional materials and/or equipment. Please give as much detail as possible about your known or anticipated funding arrangements. Further advice on fees and funding is available on the University's website and in the Postgraduate Prospectus. You may also like to contact the School in which you intend to study for information about possible sources of funding.
